

HOW TO KEEP YOUR TOOTHBRUSH CLEAN

- After you're finished brushing, make sure to clean the bristles of your toothbrush under the faucet, completely clearing it of toothpaste and any remnants.
- Tap and shake it to get rid of any leftover water, and leave it standing upright so that it's in open air and not touching another toothbrush.
- When you leave your toothbrush in this position, any bacteria left will die as the brush dries out.